

Robert D. Hanna has been working in the entertainment industry for over 25 years. He has developed a comprehensive array of production ventures in Music, Film, Television, Multimedia and Animation. He is a former recording artist who has performed on national television alongside Whitney Houston, Pati LaBelle, After Seven and others on Natalie Cole's syndicated show. Robert has produced and recorded with legends such as Billy Preston, Billy Idol, and others. At the origins in the mid Nineties, Robert signed on as a music composer/producer for the Universal Music Group (UMG). To this day, UMG annually generates hundreds of placements for Robert's songs in film and television. The Music-Q Gold Series Film, Television and Multimedia Music Catalogue was recently born from Robert's extensive track record in putting together great musical material. Through his ASCAP publishing house, MacroCosmic Music, several talented composers and artists have contributed to all the wonderful hit music inside the Gold Series. Robert has also worked for several major studios, including Dreamworks SKG, Walt Disney Studios, Sony Pictures, Marvel Studios and The Third Floor.

Robert has earned song placements in the following feature films:

Next Friday, Stealing Harvard, Scary Movie 2, Bedazzled, Drive Me Crazy, Monster, How To Kill Your Neighbors Dog, The Prodigy, Life's A Jungle, Pursuit of Happiness and others.

On television shows, Robert earned the following song placements:

CSI, CSI: NY, CSI: Miami, Frasier, ER, West Wing, BoomTown, Law & Order, The Agency, Cold Case, Everybody Love Raymond, ED, MD's, NYPD Blue, The Tonight Show, The Early Show, Push Nevada, Still Standing, Yes Dear, JAG, 20/20, 48 Hours, 60 Minutes, Survivor, The District, Without A Trace, King of Queens, Two and a Half Men, Jack & Jill, Third Watch, Secret Agent Man, Sabrina, Profiler, Patriot, The Cosby Show, ARLI$$, Sex And The City, OZ, Promised Land, Handler, Strong Medicine and many more...

MTV has used dozen's of Robert Hanna's coolest songs in a majority of its programming:

The Osbournes, Punk'd, Room Raiders, Made, Wanna Come In, Pimp My Ride, Next, Undressed, Score, The X-Effect, Wedding Crashers, T-Minus Rock, Yo Mama, From Whack To Mack, My Super Sweet 16, Brooke Knows Best, High School Stories, and more...